The Swingtips *Roswell

The Swingtips must be amazing live. They undoubtedly put on a stage show that's completely over the top, with blaring horns and full throttle vocals. That's the impression one gets from listening to Roswell (Ghost Note Music), the latest release from the Phoenix-based combo (which Tower Records has called "One of the hottest original swing bands in the U.S."). Singer Kregg Barentine turns in a stellar performance throughout. If you have a taste for retro kitsch and musical diversity, then Roswell may very well be for you.
